Hewlett Packard Enterprise Becomes DXC Technology

Attention Providers: On April 3, 2017, Hewlett Packard Enterprise (HPE) split and merged with Computer Sciences Corporation (CSC) to form a new company, DXC Technology. Providers will notice the following changes:

- Providers will begin to see the DXC Technology logo or the DXC Technology name on correspondence.
- Providers will begin to receive emails from the @dxc.com email address rather than the @hpe.com email address.
- Providers will hear the DXC Technology name when calling the Provider Assistance Center.
