interChange Provider Important Message

Attention Early Intervention/Birth to Three Providers Important Reminders – New Claim Submission Edit and New Remittance Advice Format

NEW CLAIM SUBMISSION EDIT

Effective for dates of service May 16, 2018 and forward, claim details submitted without the practitioners Employer Identification Number (EIN) for procedure codes T1023, T1027, T1028, T2024 and H2014 will deny with Explanation of Benefits (EOB) code 1803 – "SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER/EMPLOYER'S IDENTIFICATION NUMBER IS MISSING OR INVALID". A valid EIN is a nine digit number containing the practitioner's three to five digit EIN preceded with leading zeros.

Claim details with dates of service prior to May 16, 2018 for procedure codes T1023, T1027, T1028, T2024 and H2014 submitted without the practitioners EIN will continue to post and pay with EOB code 5000 "POSSIBLE DUPLICATE OF A PAID CLAIM OR A CLAIM THAT IS CURRENTLY IN PROCESS", or EOB code 5001 "EXACT DUPLICATE OF A PAID CLAIM OR A CLAIM THAT IS CURRENTLY IN PROCESS".

NEW REMITTANCE ADVICE (RA) FORMAT

A new Remittance Advice (RA) format will now be available in the "Comma Separated Values" (CSV) format to all Early Intervention/Birth to Three enrolled providers beginning with the financial cycle dated May 22, 2018 and forward.

A CSV file type can be opened in Microsoft Excel or other spreadsheet programs to allow providers to sort the file and search for specific claim approvals and denials. To access your RA in the CSV format, go to the www.ctdssmap.com Web site and log onto the secure Web portal. Under "Trade Files", choose "Downloads" from the drop down menu. Select "CSV" from the "Transaction Type" on the File Download Search screen. This will populate the current files available to download.

DXC.technology